

Call for Proposals Successful Aging Conference

Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania
Sponsored by the Institute for Culture and Society

Proposals Due by November 29, 2010

The Successful Aging Conference will include evening events during the week of April 4 – 8, 2011 as well as workshops in Kehr Union on Saturday, April 9, 2011. Faculty, staff, and students from across the university are invited to be a part of this special week.

Proposals from all disciplines are encouraged. Proposals may include but are not limited to:

- Practical and scholarly work on issues important to aging populations
- Lecture style presentations
- Hands-on workshops
- Presentations on or by community groups that interact with aging populations
- Presentations by students on aging-related course assignments or volunteer work

If you are interested please fill out the bottom section of this page and email or send a print copy to Marion Mason, 2140 McCormick, mmason@bloomu.edu by November 29, 2010.

-
- [1] Please attach or enclose a brief narrative describing your event.
- [2] Approximately how long would your session last? _____
(An estimate or range will help the committee in planning.)
- [3] If you have an upper or lower limit to the number attending please specify: _____
- [4] Do you have a preferred date or time? We will do our best to accommodate you. (Check all that apply)
- Evening session during the week of April 4th. (Friday, April 8th reserved for keynote address)
Circle date(s) you would be available: Mon 4/4 Tue 4/5 Wed 4/6 Thur 4/7
- Saturday, April 9, late morning
- Saturday, April 9, early afternoon
- [5] Please specify any audio-visual equipment needs, furniture arrangements, or any other special considerations that might be important in planning for your session.

Thank you! We will contact you with a tentative schedule by January 31, 2011.